Huntington Senior Care Network Resource Center

If you are caring for an elderly person, need information on community resources or have questions about aging, get answers to your concerns from a Huntington Senior Care Network professional. The Resource Center can also provide referrals to care management providers throughout the country. Call (626) 397-3110 or (800) 664-4664. Cost: Free

AARP Driver Safety (Insurance Discount)

Co-sponsored with AARP, this two half-day refresher class for drivers 50 and over covers age-related physical changes, the rules of the road and local driving problems. Automobile insurance companies are mandated to give graduates (55 and older) a premium discount. Call the membership line at (626) 397-3147 for a schedule. Cost: $12 AARP members, $14 non-members

Fun and Fitness Network

Get referrals to low cost, high quality exercise options in the community that are suitable for seniors and cover conditioning, strength training and flexibility. Classes include folk dancing, yoga, low-impact aerobics and a walking group. Call the membership line at (626) 397-3147 for a listing.

Support Group for Caregivers

If you care for aging relatives or close friends, a support group can give you a chance to share feelings and exchange ideas. Day and evening groups are available. Call the membership line at (626) 397-3147 for referral to a group in your area.

Huntington Collection Month-End Sale

Look for special buys at the hospital's 12,000 square foot resale shop whose proceeds help support Huntington Senior Care Network. Donations are tax deductible and welcome. A month-end sale is held the last Saturday of the month from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at 766 South Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena. Call (626) 535-2468.

Huntington Collection Price & Pack

If you or a family member are moving, this comprehensive service for the removal and sale of personal property will do it all: appraisal, pricing, packing, removal and sale at the Huntington Collection, and clean up. Ideal for those entering a retirement or convalescent facility. Proceeds support Huntington Senior Care Network. For more information call (626) 535-2462.
